

Trains, Planes and Automobiles

Getting to the 74th NSDC

Shreveport and its sister city of Bossier City are part of the Ark-La-Tex area in the northwest corner of Louisiana. Shreveport is approximately 30 miles from both Texas and Arkansas and is located at the intersection of Interstate-20 and I-49 for easy car travel. The mid-sized Shreveport Regional Airport, which is 7.4 miles away or 11 minutes from the convention center, is serviced by American, Delta and United Airlines. The only low-cost carrier is Allegiant Air. Be aware no airport shuttle services are provided.

One might also consider flying into Dallas, headquarters for One can travel from via rental car or Am-Intermodal Terminal or ride-share such as tion center, Hilton Town. The Amtrak sider flying into Dallas Southwest Airlines. Dallas to Shreveport trak. The Shreveport is 1.6 miles by taxi Uber to the convention center, Hilton Shreveport and Sam's Texas Eagle does not yet travel all the way to Shreveport. You disembark in Longview, Texas, and an Amtrak motorcoach drives you from Longview to Shreveport at no additional cost. There is only one train per day either direction so make air reservations accordingly.

See the August 2024 edition of the National Squares e-Magazine for additional information regarding travel options:

<https://nsdcnec.com/national-squares-e-magazine/>.

However you choose to get here, come Dance on the Wild Side!

Register online today at www.74thNSDC.com

Join our 74th National Square Dance Convention® Facebook group for the latest news