

Stir up your 'wild side' with the Luv Me Dat Lou-Zee-Ana Dough-Zee-Dough cookbook

Looking for a unique cookbook to add to your collection, to send as a gift, or just for the 74th NSDC memorabilia? Then you don't want to miss getting a copy of the official "Luv Me Dat Lou-Zee-Ana Dough-Zee-Dough" cookbook. This fun compilation not only includes great family recipes but some that are also unique to the Bayou State.

In addition to the recipes, the cookbook provides explanatory notes you'll need to hone your Louisiana cooking skills, interesting state facts, some fun activities and cooking adventures. There's even a section devoted to cooking on "The Wild Side" including crawfish etouffee, gumbo, jambalaya, how to cook Boudin, and some comical yet helpful tips on how to speak Lou-Zee-Ana. Order your copy today and "feed your soul," which is also the state's travel slogan.

Special thanks to Ava Miller, daughter of 74th NSDC Assistant General Chairman Alitia Becker, who compiled the copyrighted book, and to Boyett Printing & Graphics in Shreveport.

Make sure to read the National Squares e-Magazine: <https://nsdcnec.com/national-squares-e-magazine/>. Each month, beginning with the August 2024 edition, we'll pick at least one recipe to feature for your enjoyment as we work our way through the cookbook.

Bon appetit!
